Rosemary C. Penksa

Aug. 3, 1949 – Jan. 4, 2020

Rosemary C. Penksa, known as “Aunt Rose” to many of the students and customers she greeted at Twin Village Music in Lancaster for more than 50 years, died Saturday, January 4, 2020. Born in Buffalo, the former Rosemary Lavelle began working full time in the store started by her stepfather, Rudolph S. Tichy Jr., a music teacher in the Clarence schools, after she graduated from Lancaster High School in 1967.

“She was always the first face I saw walking into Twin Village for music lessons, and she was always smiling,” a former student said. She called herself “the boss’ right-hand girl.” She retired as the store’s office manager in July, 2019. Besides her career in music retail, Rose was secretary of the Beau Gesters Social Club and volunteered weekly at bingo games for the Knights of Columbus. She bowled every week for 30 years at the Broadway Sports Center.

Rose loved playing clarinet with her friends and family in the Lancaster Town Band for many years, including a stint in the 1970’s and a second stretch in the 1990’s through 2003. Rose also proofed and typed the Lancaster Town Band’s summer “Tri-fold” programs, sponsored by Twin Village Music for many summers.

She enjoyed traveling, camping, reunions with friends and spending time with her large extended family. She remembered the birthdays of all 46 of her nieces and nephews. Rose was married to her first husband, Francis “Frank” Jerge, a Niagara Frontier Transportation Authority bus driver, for 27 years. He died in 1997. She was remarried to Mark “Cowboy” Penksa, an American Axle worker, in 2002.

Survivors also include a brother, Rudolph S. Tichy III; and three sisters, Dolores Robinson, Joan Laible and Marcia Tichy. Our August 3 concert is dedicated to her on what would have been Rosemary’s 72nd birthday.
